

15

SDG 15: LIFE ON LAND

Khalifa University of Science and Technology contributes to SDG 15: Life on Land by advancing research, sustainable campus practices, and community engagement that support biodiversity conservation, ecosystem health, and sustainable land use. Operating in a sensitive arid environment, KU recognizes the importance of protecting terrestrial ecosystems and native biodiversity.

Campus Environment

- Biodiversity protection
- Green spaces
- Native species

Environmental Impact

- Conservation projects
- Education programs

LIFE ON LAND

15

LIFE
ON LAND

Community Engagement in Environmental Awareness & Sustainable Practices (2025) Environmental Education & Awareness

- Environment Day event:
- 2 educational presentations
- 46 students attended
- 7 external entities participated
- Earth Day visit to Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Solar Park
- 22 KU community members attended
- Tadweer Group Virtual Session
- 54 KU members participated
- Tadweer Group Exhibition
- 225 KU visitors engaged

Campus & Community Engagement Campaigns

- Global Recycling Day quiz
- 59 responses
- EnviroTrivia Series
- 4 editions released
- 351 responses collected
- Earth Hour initiative
- 742 kWh energy saved
- 148.4 AED cost savings
- 4,039 Instagram story views

Impact

Through structured awareness programs, educational partnerships, energy conservation actions, and strong community participation, KU advanced responsible environmental stewardship aligned with SDG 15 objectives